24. 11. 2017 7:15. 0 Euro/USD, 01/11/2017, 10:00. Russia: Foreign Reserves Curbed Growth. The Russian Finance Ministry is expected to keep gold reserves at their current level of $35 billion, although Moscow is increasing capital controls to prevent capital flight. Russia is also considering an increase in the margin requirements for commercial banks. The one-week delay in the planned dividend of the Natural Resources Corp. and other assets of Surgutneftegas was also due to high levels of capital outflows following the unveiling of the government's foreign reserves policy last week. If the policy is not approved, a dividend of RUB11.1 billion ($150 million) could be withheld, Interfax-Investment Research reported, citing the Federation of Russian Regions.
